POSITION PURPOSE

Serve as working leader of student employees engaged in distribution of U.S. and inter-department mail. Transport mail and delivery personnel to assigned areas.

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

- Provide functional supervision to student employees delivering mail on assigned routes. Disburse carts containing U.S. and campus mail to delivery personnel; provide instruction and direction on where delivery and pick-up points are located; handle routine questions and/or problems which arise during delivery; ensure efficient and accurate delivery and collection of all material on assigned route.
- Drive vehicle used for mail delivery. Determine route to be followed to deliver U.S. and campus mail on assigned route; bind matter to be delivered to the same location using automated tying machines; empty contents of sorting bins into carts used for delivery; oversee and participate in the placement of carts, which may be very heavy, in vehicle to be taken to assigned route; access all appropriate mail delivery and pick-up locations for assigned area which may be in several buildings and/or floors; collect out-going matter from units for later delivery.
- Transport material to be delivered via U.S. mail to post office. Load mail trays, heavy bags and cumbersome tubs containing parcels in vehicle; unload vehicle at post office and reload vehicle with mail to be delivered on campus; place in-coming mail in proper areas of mailroom for sorting. Accept registered, certified, special delivery mail at post office on behalf of the University; complete U.S. Postal Service forms to document receipt of same.
- Perform routine inspection and servicing of mail delivery vehicles. Check fuel, oil, water, anti-freeze, brake fluid, etc. levels; add fluids as necessary; wash vehicles; maintain monthly trip log to track mileage; take vehicles for service as instructed.
- Follow all appropriate U.S. Postal Service guidelines and regulations for the processing of mail. Complete necessary forms accurately; operate automated tying machine; ensure mail is delivered in a timely manner on assigned routes; work with envelopes and packages of various sizes, shapes and weights.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
